

Rupert Lowe's message to Keir Starmer

My response to Keir Starmer this evening.

I have spent the last ten days at our inquiry listening to the testimonies of women who have been raped and abused by packs of mainly Pakistani Muslim men.

One girl was raped, and then had a whisky bottle forced into her. It shattered inside her.

She was 12.

12, Prime Minister.

This has happened all over Britain. Everywhere. It still goes on today. NOW.

Thousands and thousands and thousands of British girls treated as meat. As dirt. As pieces of shit.

What are you doing about it?

The honest answer is this.

F all.

You are more concerned about clinging on to the Muslim vote than acting to protect vulnerable British girls.

I have never been so furious at a British Prime Minister. You honestly disgust me.

You should be ashamed of yourself. I truly mean that.

Act now, and I mean now, or history will be appropriately brutal.

Sent from my iPhone